COMMISSIONER REPORTS
Mayor Fosdick stated we are dealing with the unknown with regards to the coronavirus. He advised he participated in the Governor’s conference call and tomorrow is a conference call with the County Executive. Ridgefield Park schools will be closed tomorrow to students. Teachers will be in to review procedures and prepare online classes. Information on the coronavirus is on the website. Best case scenario – it will take 1 year after discovery to develop a vaccine. A Little Ferry resident passed away today from the virus.

HEARING OF CITIZENS
Margaret Boyd, resident, stated she has heard letters regarding the re-evaluations were mailed, however, she did not receive one. She asked for clarification on the process since some residents stated the letter was not clear and are assuming their taxes will be increasing significantly.

Mayor Fosdick advised it is a rolling re-assessment. This year all properties will be reassessed. Over the next 4 years, a percentage of properties will be reassessed each year. This will bring the assessments close to market value.

Phil Boggia added the tax rate will drop with the assessments increasing.

Commissioner Kohles stated she doesn’t feel the letter was clear.

NEW BUSINESS
Mayor Fosdick announces that the following business is considered to be routine in nature and will be enacted in one motion. Any item may be removed for separate consideration.
